FAMILY RECORD OF MARDTI (MARTIN) KUNRAD (CONRAD) ¹

Evidently the original Family Record was written on a page of the Family Bible, as it is referred to as, "this book."

This book belongs to me, Martin Conrad (Kunrad) at that time resident of the Village Slunger. And may the Merciful Almighty God our Lord grant me the right understanding to read it for His Honor, Glory and Praise. This was written in the year of our Lord 1782 Feb. 20th.

See copy from Goshen

And I Martin Conrad was born A.D. 1753 November 11th Martinsday in the sign of Bull.

And I Martin Conrad was united in holy wedlock with Annette Liechty A.D. 1779 April 25th.

And I Martin Conrad was ordained for the service of the church of God at Mompelgart (this being my first charge) A.D. 1780 October 22th.

And may the righteous, merciful, almighty and allwise God and Father grant me, Thy lowly humble and meek servant wisdom diligence to fear and love Him above anything invisible or visable on earth or in Heaven.

And may God the Lord strengthen and comfort me according to His most holy Will to comprehend and serve My Ministry as a true pious fighter for His holy Word so when the time of my departure shall come, I may say with the chosen. Apostle Paul in his epistle to Timothy II chapter IV verse 6 7 8 For I am now ready to be offered and the time of my departure is at hand.

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing. And that I may be able to say;

With sorrow and tears I received my ministry and with joy and gladness I remit it to Him who has ordained me, His humble servant Honor, Glory and Praise to Thy name through Jesus Christ our Lord.. Amen.

Written in the year of our Lord 1782 February 20th.

RECOMMENDATION

We, the condersigned Charles Frederik Vergon Mayor of the town Abbevellers, Canton (county) Audincourt, Arrondissement (judical circuit) Montbelliard, Departement (State) du Doubs testify that Mr. Jacob Conrad (Kunrod) and his wife nee Rich with five children, four sons and one daughter, have lived on the farm Marche Lavillers in the township of Abbevillers during the period of 18 years.

This respectable and honorable family has never given the least cause for any complaint whatever, but have proven to be honest, straight and most desirable citizens, the children as well as their parents; irreproachable in their conduct and behaviour they won the esteem of the community.

Although we greatly regret their departure from our community we deem it a pleasure in granting this family the best of references and recommendations and we desire that they shall receive every protection and aid they may need from the authorities of their new destination. Personally we wish them the best of success

CONRAD FAMILY COAT OF ARMS

"The herewith coat of arms is the Conrad armorial of original grant, dating from the first Crusade, A.D. 1096, in which it was first borne by Sir Knight Crusade, Johan Von Conrad (see Feysabends Geschichte Der Kreuzzuge—History of the Crusades and Crusaders—the first printed book published at Frankfurt, A.D. 1583, and the most exhaustive and detailed history of the kind ever published).

Fannie Boshart

Fannie Boshart was born 20 JAN 1829 in Europe. She emigrated to America in 1855, sailing from Havre, on the ship SWITZERLAND and arrived in New York on 7 June, 1855. She was 25 years of age and her occupation was unknown. Her sister, Catherine was also aboard the ship. Catherine was 29 years old and her occupation was listed as a farmer. No other (Rosserts) Bosserts were named on the ship's list but other Mennonites may have been relatives.

Other Mennonite names recognized on the same ship list were Roth, Beck, Stauffer, Lehmann, Kuntz, Meyer, Bauman, Schweitzer, Stauffer, Ernst, Albrucht, Amstutz, Eicher, Klopenstein, Schnek, Weidmer, Rich, Kaufmann, Schultz, Funck, Neuenschwander, Lugenbuehl, Oswald, Becker, Fischer, Richard, Kropp, Reiser. A total of 83 persons that may have been Mennonites out of the 561 traveling on the ship.

There may have been more Mennonites but I don't recognize the name as such. There were 19 single men whose ages ranged from 17 to 46 and 11 single women all in their 20's except one who was 57. There were two children without parents aged 5 and 3 year old. A large family totaling 13 were also on the ship. A total of 10 families and three of the couples did not have children and two families were without men listed. There were 10 men and 5 women whose occupation were listed as farmers.

Emigration reasons given in the book for the Germans leaving their homeland was a variety of factors, including crop failures, a lack of industrial employment, overpopulation, social discontent and political repression and upheaval. Also the lure of cheap land and the chance to make a fresh start in a new country.¹

What little we know of Fannie is gathered from two pieces of evidence she left behind. A German Confession of Faith, and a church letter she brought with her. The book printed in 1822 is covered in brown leather and is four inches by six inches and three-fourths inches thick with two clasps to hold it closed. The book is a bit worn but in good condition for 177 years since it was printed in 1822.

When she was 19 years of age she wrote inside the front cover, " This lovely Confession of Faith belongs to me Veronika out of which I pray of God for faith and blessing and firstly for eternal life." Written January 1, 1848.

The Title page reads, "Christian Confession of Faith of the defenseless (non-resistant),and particularly in the Netherlands (under the name Mennonisten) well known Christians; as well as some Christian prayers of these same confessors of the faith: In addition seven spiritual Praise and other songs from a number of 400, gathered by a godly teacher of the same confession and adjoined for approval; Also an appendix for the incontestable proof that the said confessors of the faith in their life and teaching, are to be found much different, then has hitherto, through false tiding's been wanted to be judged of them.

Veronika evidently treasured this book and was almost 19 years of age when she wrote in it. It accompanied her to the new land. The other document Veronika brought with her was her church letter from Birkenhof in Alsace . Both of these documents give evidence of a strong faith in God and a love for him and his church.

The church letter she brought with her reads,

Birgenhoft, the 18th day of April, 1855.

Through God's Grace we wish you the best to your heart-friendly greetings to all who have seldom written – with that as a request for prayer for us to pray of the dear God. Unanswered questions: What were the grievous times referred to? Why was it necessary for them to leave? Who are the them referred to? What are the untranslated names or words in the letter?

She evidently soon traveled to Iowa after arriving in New York, because she became the wife of Martin Conrad, Henry Co., Iowa on 27th of NOV 1856.

²Translator is unknown, but both letter and translation were in possession of Henry Gerig, when he died in 1982. With it was a note that it was his Grandmother's church letter. His daughter Marjorie Gerig Nofziger has it in her possession..

Fannie Boshart

After she married Martin H. Conrad of Henry County, Iowa, her husband used it also as a family register, when he wrote on next page opposite the title page to record the birth of their children. It reads, "Family Register of Martin Conrad. My first child was born the 4th of September 1857 about 2 o'clock in the morning in the sign of the fish and shall be named Maria.

My second child was born the 20th of February about 11:30 o'clock in the evening and shall be named Amos. In the sign of the scabs.

Their marriage was of short duration when she died at childbirth on 21 Feb. 1859 at the time of Amos birth, leaving Martin with the infant and Maria only a small child of 17 months. ³

In May 1862 Martin was married to Marie Smucker and she became the mother to Mary and Amos. A fragile booklet, printed 1825 in German, left by Marie contains the Lord's prayer, the Holy Ten Commandments and a few lovely prayers. Title page reads, "Booklet for the instruction of Young Children" and has inscribed in it, "This booklet belongs to me, Marie Schmucker. Written in the year 1837," when she would have been about 14 years of age. ⁴

Both of Martin Conrad's wives give indication of godliness and Martin's Grandfather was a Amish Bishop in the Montbeliard Amish Congregation, Alsace, France.

Fannie also went by the name Verena and Bossert has also been spelled as Boshart.

Martin and Marie Conrad's estates were both probated and they are listed in an index at the Mt. Pleasant Court House but they are both missing and the clerk said that somebody must have taken them.

Court house records showed that Martin and Mary Conrad sold 80 acres to Christian R. Gerig (Sec 29, T 73, R.7) on Oct 31, 1881 for $1,000.00. C. R. sold the same acreage with approximately one acre less that was for a school, on Jan 23, 1906 to a Kauffman for $5,332.50. I have recently learned that Fannie had a sister by the name of Maria that married a Kauffman.

³One record says 20 Feb. 1859. Tombstone and some other genealogies say 21 Feb. 1859. Amos was born 20th of Feb. 1859 about 11:30 p.m. and since Fannie died because of childbirth, either date could be correct but it is likely that the 21st is correct.

Ainsi, vers 1800 on enterrait beaucoup à Blochmont, à Montigo et à Birkenhof où, en 1807, un terrain particulier fut reconnu comme cimetière par l'administration préfectorale. Il sert encore aujourd'hui. Il existe de même un cimetière à Liebenstein.

Nous avons mentionné comme, en 1881, des familles de Birkenhof et de Florimont se groupèrent pour former la nouvelle assemblée d'Altkirch. Malgré toutes les circonstances défavorables, l'assemblée de Birkenhof s'était maintenue. Elle participa au réveil de l'activité commune et la vie religieuse

FOREWORD

As a speaker at many major genealogical conferences, I am aware of the enormous interest in German immigration, particularly after 1840. Most of the questions at these conferences and in my correspondence concern the search for German immigrants. About 4 million Germans came to the United States between 1850 and 1895. Although they are recorded in the National Archives, their names remain unindexed and therefore unfindable unless the researcher knows the ship on which the person arrived and the exact date of arrival. What has been needed is a list of immigrants, arranged first by ship at the port of debarkation and then indexed by family name.

The original passenger lists for 1850 through 1855, prepared by shipping agents and ships' officers, are now deposited at the Temple-Balch Center for Immigration Research in Philadelphia and are reproduced in these volumes by ship and date of arrival. This arrangement will greatly aid genealogical researchers as will the volume-by-volume index.

Why was there such a great mass of people wishing to quit their homeland for the unknown United States? Emigration from Germany was spurred by a variety of factors, including crop failures, a lack of industrial employment, overpopulation, social discontent and political repression and upheaval, as well as the lure of cheap land and the chance to make a fresh start in a new country. The lists, starting from 1850, were chosen for publication because that year begins a period when immigration to the United States was swelling, touched off by the departure of political refugees, liberals, and intellectuals and by stories about a better life sent back by those who had emigrated previously. Most of the

as mortgagee ,

Witnesseth, That the said mortgagors for and in consideration of the sum of Three

To Have and to Hold the said premises with the appurtenances unto the said mortgagee his heirs and assigns forever.
